Dear Colonel Ward:

I deeply regret the delay in answering your kind letter of 21 March 1961. I had discussed it on several occasions with [redacted] The delay in part was due to my desire to reply as definitely as I could to your courteous invitation to attend your meeting on 27-28 May at Exeter, when you indicate you propose to present me as a candidate for honorary membership in the New Hampshire Society.

Unfortunately at the present time I cannot give you a firm answer, but I can only say I am deeply appreciative of your invitation of the honor to be extended me, and that I will make every effort to be present, and will notify you more definitely as the time of meeting approaches.

With all best wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Allen W. Dulles
